

Application October 6th-8th at the Sevier Gounty Fairgrounds in Richfield Utah

2022

ame:
ddress:
none(s):
mail:
nort Biography of yourself:
ame of the quilt or Class

Description for the Web Site (Sell your class in 50 Words or less)

What SKILL, TECHNIQUE, or METHOD will you be teaching? (We want to highlight this with each class to help people pick what class to take.)

PHOTOS

Make sure 1-3 photos of your project are enclosed when you return this form, or send a digital copy to Rob directly at Robbeetlejuice@gmail.com)

INSTRUCTIONS

Please include instructions in a text or pdf document that we can forward to each student when they register to help them prepare for the class. This Needs to include:

Fabric needed.
Any templates or Pattern Fees.
Any other information they should know before the class.
Your Contact information – How they should contact you if they have questions before the event.

Additional fees not listed on the web site cannot be charged at the event.

(Please answer each and every question below)

Is there a pattern fee or any	other fees?	No $	(for)
Is this class Beginner	Interme	ediate	Advanced	_ All Levels
I would prefer teaching	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	7
I would prefer teaching	_Morning _	Afternoo	onEveni	ng
Classes are limited to 16 peo	ople. If you	can accept	more please i	ndicate:

Registration cut-off for your class:

1 Week Before 2 Weeks Before No Cut Off

Can this class be taught in our loft? (Up a flight of stairs, preferably no sewing machines) __Yes__No

(We pay $75 for 3 hour class and $150 for 6 hour class. We do not pay for travel or accommodations)

- → Please get this application to Lana Ogden ASAP for consideration. (The earlier the better)
- → Applications will be reviewed and evaluated by a group of local quilters.
- → Remember, these classes are to encourage quilters to gain more knowledge, and to have fun doing it. Keep that in mind as you pick what project you would like to teach.
- ➔ Any questions call Lana Ogden (435) 979-6422 or Rob Larsen (435) 841-1040.